2013 SUMMER

Featuring Guest Coach
Janet Champion

Advanced Figure Skating Academy

at the William L. Chase Arena, Natick, MA

August 20th - 23rd

Details

FMC Ice Sports is pleased to present a concentrated learning experience featuring special guest coach Janet Champion. Students will experience various disciplines of figure skating while focusing on their overall development. Each day offers multiple sessions on ice and off with our team of highly experienced instructors in addition to Ms. Champion.

ABOUT JANET CHAMPION:

At the age of 10, Janet Champion started her unique career as a child star with Shipstad's and Johnson's Ice Follies. Janet trained on ice with Edi Sholden at the Broadmoor and studied Ballet, Acrobatics and Jazz Dancing.

Janet trains skaters from Learn to Skate classes to National, International and Junior World Champions. She has also worked with World and Olympic Champions. Janet's students have also become ice show stars around the world.

Janet has conducted seminars for skaters and coaches in the United States, Canada, Mexico, England, Scotland and Japan. She has presented in numerous seminars and conference for the Professional Skaters Association and independently she has done seminars with Frank Carroll, Kathy Casey, Carlo Fassi, Peter Dunfield, and Christy Ness.

Janet has garnered many PSA awards but in 2012, Janet was honored to receive the Professional Skaters Association Hall of Fame award.
